

SOFT SKILLS

Soft skills are a set of personal characteristics and interpersonal abilities that define one's relationships, communication, and interactions with others. These abilities are not often associated with specialized technical knowledge or competence in a certain industry, but rather are more generically applicable across a variety of vocations and life situations.

It widely sought for by business because they contribute to a great work environment, successful teamwork and increased production. These abilities are transportable across industries and are beneficial to both personal and professional development.

S Ajith Kumar, Founder & MD, ASK Training Solution, delivering a Seminar on “Conflict Resolution” for our Students on 06.11.2023.

LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Language and communication skills are integral components of how individuals convey interpret information. It is essential for effective interaction, collaboration and conveying ideas and information. Developing and honing these skills can significantly enhance professional and personal relationships, teamwork and overall success in various contexts, including the workplace, social settings and everyday life.

DR.S.G.STARLIN MANO, HOD, Maria College of Engineering and Technology, delivering a Seminar on “LINGUISTICS” for our Students on 22.11.2023.

Dr.J.T. Pratheesh, Associate Professor, Ponjesly College of Engineering, delivering a Seminar on “DIGITAL MARKETING” for our Students on 21.04.2024.

LIFE SKILLS

Life skills are crucial for personal development, professional success and overall well-being. They are often seen as complementary to academic or technical skills and play a fundamental role in an individual's ability of function in society and achieve personal goals. These skills are learned and refined over time through various experiences and can be continuously developed throughout one's life.

Dr.M.Velvizhi, Assistant professor Muslim Arts and Science College, taking a Seminar on “Hygienic awareness program” in the Seminar Hall on 25/08/2023

Ms. Vijayalekshmi.G, YOGA Trainer, Esha Yoga Centre. Emprical session of Positive thinking and Meditation, for the students in the Auditorium on 20/09/2023.

COMPUTING SKILLS

Computing abilities are essential in today's technologically driven world and are applicable in a variety of vocations and daily life. These abilities are becoming increasingly important for a wide range of jobs and industries, from basic office work to more specialized employment in information technology, programming, data analysis, and other fields. Because of the rapid evolution of technology, continuous learning and updating of computing skills are required.

K. Jeba Kumar, Managing director, Hi Tech Solutions, delivering a Seminar on “IOT Applications” for our Students on 10.10.2023-11.10.2023.

S.V. Rajeswari, Assistant professor, Mahendra Engineering College for women, delivering a Seminar on “Block chain technology” for our Students on 05/03/2024.