Sexual harassment at the workplace has become a routine activity nowadays. Now and then we get to hear about new cases of sexual harassment. This is because sexual harassment at the workplace is an enhanced form of violence that takes place in daily routine and snatches away the women's right to life and healthy livelihood. In view of this, we decided to have a committee in place solely responsible for addressing and resolving the issues of sexual harassment at our workplace and which is easily accessible by all faculties, students and other staff members.
